The right of all students to seek knowledge, debate ideas, form opinions, and freely express their ideas is fully recognized by the University of Central Florida, including when students come together as student organizations. The Organizational Rules of Conduct, set out below, apply to student organization conduct and will not be used to impose discipline for the lawful expression of ideas. The following

Harassment under this provision is conduct (verbal or physical behavior) that would constitute harassment under federal or state civil rights laws or under University Regulation UCF-3.001.

- c. contact, however slight, between the anus or sex organ of one individual and any other object.

2. Consent is an affirmative act or statement by an individual that is informed, freely given and mutually understood. Consent cannot be obtained by force, threat, coercion, manipulation, reasonable fear of injury, intimidation, use of position of influence, or through the use of one's mental or physical helplessness or incapacity. - a. Responsibilities - It is the responsibility of each person involved in any sexual activity to ensure the consent of the other, or others, to engage in the sexual activity.
- b. Standard - A determination of whether consent exists will be based on the information the initiator of the sexual act knew or should have known as a sober, reasonable person. Being intoxicated does not relieve an initiator of a sexual act from obtaining consent.
- c. Incapacitation - If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated so that the person cannot understand the fact, nature, or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent.
 - i.  - ii. The existence of a dating or sexual relationship between the persons involved, or the fact of past sexual relations is not indicator of consent for any current or future sexual encounter.

- e. Scope of Consent - Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another.
- (b) Sex Harassment: Conduct that would constitute sexual harassment under federal or state civil rights laws or under University Regulation UCF-3.001; including but not limited to unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other harassment based on sex which, due to the severity and pervasiveness of the conduct and the targeted nature of the conduct on the basis of sex (including but not limited to sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression and pregnancy), objectively prevents or impairs another person's full enjoyment of the educational benefits, employment, atmosphere, or opportunities provided as part of the University.

 - ~~b. — The existence of a dating or sexual relationship between the persons involved, or the fact of past sexual relations is not indicator of consent for any current or future sexual encounter.~~

- ~~3. — If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated so that the person cannot understand the fact, nature, or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent.~~
- ~~a. — Incapacitation is a temporary or permanent state in which a person cannot make informed, rational judgments because the person lacks the physical or mental capacity to understand the nature or consequences of their words and/or conduct, and/or the person is unable to physically or verbally communicate consent.~~
- ~~b. — This includes but is not limited to conditions due to age, alcohol or drug consumption, being unconscious or asleep, or because of an intellectual or other disability that prevents the person from having the capacity to give consent~~
- ~~(b) — Obscene or indecent behavior, which includes, but is not limited to, exposure of one's sexual organs or the lewd display of sexual behavior.~~
- ~~(c) — Sexual Harassment: defined as conduct (verbal or physical) of a sexual nature that, due to the severity and pervasiveness of the conduct and the targeted nature of the conduct on the basis of sex, creates an objectively intimidating, hostile, or offensive campus, educational, or working environment for another person. This definition also applies to unwanted, unwelcome, inappropriate, or irrelevant sexual or gender-based activities, sexual advances, or requests for sexual favors, when (i) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a student's academic or extracurricular participation, or employment; or (ii) submission to or rejection of such conduct or request is used as the basis for employment decisions or to determine participation in academic or extracurricular activities. Sexual harassment under this provision is conduct (verbal or physical behavior) that would constitute sexual harassment under federal or state civil rights laws or under University Regulation UCF 3.001.~~
